His spine broken and his left leg and seven ribs fractured when he was struck by a trolley car two weeks before, Timothy Gilfoy, 82, father-in-law of Town Treasurer J. Wilbert Anderson, died of his injuries in Symmes Arlington Hospital at 6:15 Saturday morning.

Only 20 models are pictured in the annual Rogers catalog, and the 19 others selected for this year are adults.

The distinction doesn't bother Johnny much, for he's used to the spotlight. He has modeled for famous New York artists: his photos have appeared in advertisements for soaps, orange juice, railroads, etc., and in such magazines as Life, Click, Saturday Evening Post and Collier's.

Under contract to Conover's model agency in New York, he flies down with his parents every so often to fulfill a professional engagement there. His most recent trip was three weeks ago.

Unusually robust for his age, Mr. Gilfoy went to work every day in the office of a Cambridge warehouse, and he was on his way there about 6 o'clock the morning of January 22 when a trolley coming down the incline on Mass Ave. ran him down. It was a cold, icy morning; the trolley car allegedly went some distance before being able to stop.

The aged victim was picked up, unconscious, and taken to the hospital in the police ambulance. He later recovered consciousness and, because of his strong constitution, members of his family at first thought he would recover.

Mr. Gilfoy had lived in Arlington 28 years, and for many years was employed by the Consolidated Box Co. He leaves his wife, Mrs. Alice Gilfoy; four sons, Alvin of Andover, John of North Abington and Richard and Victor of Needham, and two daughters, Mrs. J. Wilbert Anderson and Mrs. Edith Geibow, both of Arlington.

Funeral services were held Monday afternoon, with Rev. Nathan W. Wood of the First Baptist Church officiating. Burial was in Andover.

Housewives Here Cheered By First Cuts In Food Prices, But Doubt Trend Really Has Turned

Arlington housewives this week welcomed the first cuts in swollen food prices with an admixture of cheer and skepticism. They were happy that some food prices were coming down, but skeptical that the peak of inflation really has been passed or that the cost of other commodities would now start dropping.

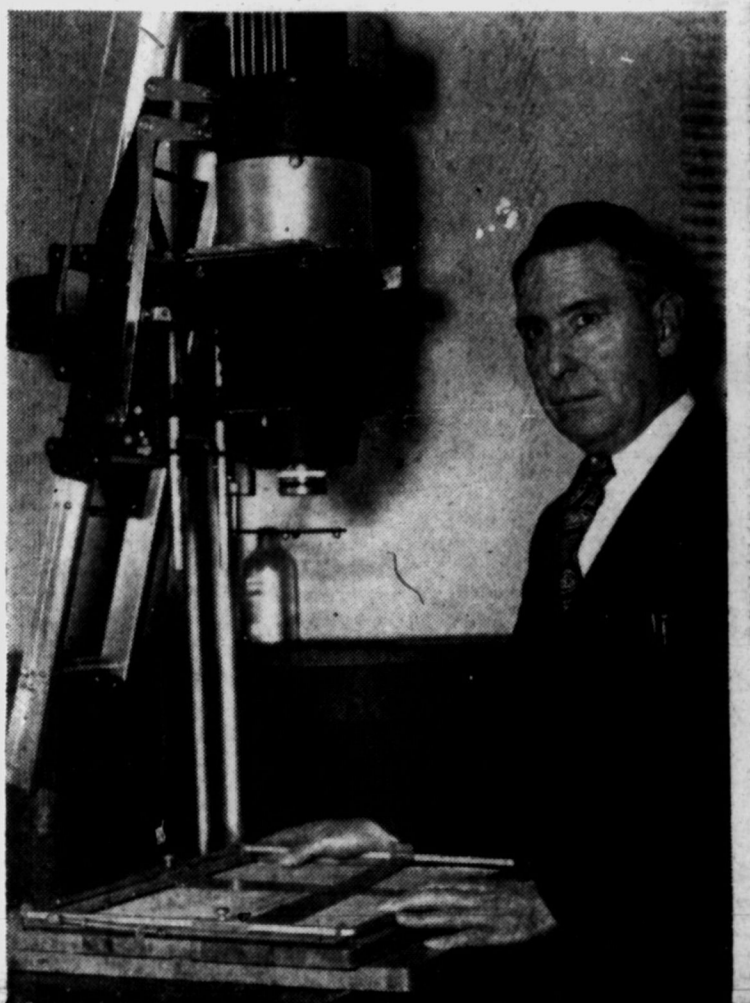

"It's good news" and "It's encouraging," said most of a dozen housewives interrogated by a Press reporter; but many of them obviously were waiting for more decisive indications that the trend actually has changed.

The lower prices for bacon, flour, lard and a few other items nevertheless were a subject of happy comment, and on all sides there arose new hope for strained family budgets.

The 12 housewives questioned at random by the Press, as furnishing a cross-section of public reaction, had the following comments:-

MRS. SOPHIE WESLOWSKI, 11 Grove St. Pl.: "Wonderful."
MRS. ERNEST L. GAULT, 969 Mass. Ave.: "It was high time prices started coming down. I'm just buying from week to week, hoping prices will come down still more."
MRS. ALBERT W. HILLIARD, 40 Jason St.: "It's good news, but there's plenty of room for prices to go lower."
MRS. ROSS E. CHAPIN, 41 Jason St.: "I'll reserve comment till prices have really gone back to near normal."
MRS. ANDREW CANZANELLI, 17 Maynard St.: "I'd like to believe it, but I'm afraid these cuts are only temporary."
MRS. MARY CRANDALL, 176 Pleasant St.: "I haven't seen much (Continued on page two)

IT'S LIEUT.—INSPECTOR James J. Flynn's job to take official police pictures, such as photos of auto accidents, and Crime Scenes but here the tables—or the lens—are turned on him as the Press photographer centers his own lens on the police photographer. The personnel and equipment of the police photographic department is symbolic of the efficiency of Arlington's police, and no one was more impressed with the well-equipped darkroom than this paper's fotoman. Said Lieut. Flynn "I doubt that many police departments in a city this size have the fine equipment we have." In operation since 1930, the modern station has been inspected by many outside police officials. Lieut. Flynn, who as an inspector does a lot of other work besides napping rogues' gallery and accident pics, is assisted by Patrolman-Inspector George Fitzgibbon, another lens expert.

Boy, 3, Rings False Alarm

The youngest false-alarm ringer on record was brought to light this week, when a three-year-old boy sent in a false alarm from the corner of North Union and Decatur Sts.

The alarm brought several pieces of fire apparatus to the scene at 3:26 Tuesday afternoon.

Police officers were able to locate the youngster who was reported to have stood on a box to ring the fire box. His name was not disclosed, but he presumably came in for parental attention.

SAFETY in HOME HEATING
BY WILLMANN CORPORATION

Could this be YOUR Home - - Tomorrow ?

BE INSURED AGAINST FIRE

A FEW DAYS AGO, a great Boston newspaper warned of the appalling loss of life and property — from fires and explosions caused by defective Heating Systems. A few of the most tragic incidents are told in daily headlines. And yet . . . except in the case of accidents or negligence — all of these disasters could have been easily PREVENTED. Simply by competent inspection and Service—before it was too late.

From now until Spring, these dangers will be more serious than ever! For, after the exceptional heating stresses of the past few months, even the "Smallest" hidden defects can suddenly become fire-traps! For Safety's sake, it is simply common sense to have a competent inspection of your Heating System now. In this matter, delay can be really dangerous!

BE S-U-R-E YOUR HEATING IS S-A-F-E

TO MAKE SURE of the average Home - Heating System, proper checks and inspection should be made on 44 possible points of danger. In the interests of Home-Heating Safety, the famous "44-Point Survey" of Willmann Corporation is gladly offered — free on request. There is no charge or slightest obligation for this Survey. difference in our food bill yet, and I doubt that price cuts will amount to much for awhile—though I hope they do."

The high regard in which the lieutenant is held has been eloquently demonstrated by the hundreds of phone calls received at his home at 58 Webcoet Rd. along with a great many sympathy cards.

Though still confined to his bed, Lieut. Barry is now able to sit up for brief periods. His convalescence is expected to take several weeks.

MRS. JAMES DOUGHERTY, 16 Pelham Terrace: "The change in trend is encouraging, but I'm waiting to see the price of meat come down: that's where the big increases have been."

MRS. JACK BREWER, 15 Wall St.: "I've only read about the prices cuts in the newspapers, so far, but if prices are really coming down it's certainly good news—especially for large families."

MRS. LUCY LETO, 7 Columbia St.: "All we have so far is a bit of hope—a hope that prices really will come down."

MRS. RUTH GERSH, 1027 Mass. Ave.: "It's an encouraging sign, but only that I'm doubtful that the prices of other commodities will go down, or that the food reductions are more than temporary."

MRS. RICHARD E. AMBROSE, 12 Jason Terrace: "It's good news, but I want to wait awhile before making any comment."

MRS. CORNELIUS COLLINS, 30 Rangely Rd.: "On the basis of price cuts so far my own family will save about 25 cents a month—so there's nothing much to get excited about. I do believe though, that if all housewives buy only what they really need, prices really will come down."

A fourth grader at Hardy School, he is proud of his scrap books, for in them are letters from President Truman, Navy Secretary Forrestal, Congresswoman Edith Nourse Rogers and other notables.

Not so long ago he was offered a contract by Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer, but it was decided best to continue living a simple life in his home town, with his family and friends. Each week he makes two appearances at veterans' hospitals, where he sings and tap dances. In all, he has made thus far a total of 1,300 public appearances.

Open Forum To Be Held On Town Government Changes
Proposed changes in town government—including merger of four town departments, a board of selectmen of five members and an "executive officer" to head the merged departments—were approved by resolution at a meeting Tuesday of the Arlington Heights Improvement Association.

The association voted also to hold an open forum the first week in March at Crockett School. This meeting will be open to all, and members of the Committee on Town Government will speak and answer questions.

Mid-Winter Strawberry Festival Made Possible By Frozen Fruit
Though it was mid-winter and the thermometer hovered close to zero outside, members of the Arlington Order of Sir Galahad, assembled at St. John's Episcopal Church, Lombard and Pleasant Sts., sat down to a feast of real strawberries Tuesday night.

They'll Wed
The following couples filed marriage intentions at Town Hall this week:

Joseph Anthony Scannell, Somerville freight employee, and Miss Dorothy Frances Ling, secretary, 116 Broadway.

Joseph Harold Garelt, Lab. technician, 969 Mass Ave. and Miss Lorraine Rita McNamara of the same address.

Marcus Lars Sorensen, wool dealer, 27 Langley Rd., and Mrs. Doris Aline Simpson (nee Thompson), registered nurse, Stoneham.

Hubert Leonard Paquet, postal clerk, Newtonville, and Marie Theresa Greer, 119 Mt. Vernon St.

Enos Ray Carter, Roxbury, and Miss Florence Louise Pastena, X-Ray Technician, 80 Williams St.

'Burglar' Scare Easily Explained
It was midnight last Thursday, and Mrs. Laird of 51 Langeley Rd. was awakened by an unaccustomed noise.

She listened, and the noise came again. No doubt about it, she told herself: someone was trying to force the front door.

Still half asleep, Mrs. Laird picked up the phone near her bed and called police.

A police cruiser was quickly on the scene, but there was no reason for excitement. The cops found that the noise that had awakened Mrs. Laird had been made by a roomer making a late entry to his room.

Legion Auxiliary
"Americanism and Membership" will be the theme of the American Legion Auxiliary meeting next Monday, at 8 P.M. Mrs. Hilda McStravick, department second vice president will be the principal speaker. Mrs. Anna Buckley, chairman of the Poppy Program, will report on the progress of the committee.

Jennie Kurrus will be in charge of the meeting and refreshments. It will be an open meeting.

Query By Shea
Editor, Arlington Press:—
"I am interested in finding out publicly from the Committee on Town Government why the suggestion I made at a public hearing Nov. 4, 1947, for the consolidation of the administrative control of the fire and police departments under a single administrative officer called the Commissioner of Public Safety was not even commented upon."

"The Committee on Town government, as I understand it, is concerned with economies in local government. My suggestion would save the taxpayers a minimum of $100,000 per year in the operation of the two departments."

Changes Made In Voting Officials
Several new election officers were appointed by the selectmen this week, due to resignations.

Emil M. Robertson of 7 Pond View Rd., who resigned as election inspector in precinct 4, will be replaced by Fred C. Danton, 32 Alfred Rd., with Elizabeth B. Berg of 41 Pond View Rd., as deputy inspector.

In Precinct 12, where Emmens F. Wylie has resigned as warden, the selectmen appointed Walter Alsen, 33 Landen St., teller, and Albert S. Brown, 5 Robbins Rd., deputy inspector.

Mrs. E. A. Graham
Funeral services were held for Mrs. Elizabeth A. (McCarthy) Graham, wife of L. Reed Graham, yesterday morning from the D.W. Grannum and Son Home, 378 Mass Ave. A High Mass of Requiem was celebrated at 9 A.M. at St. Agnes' Church.

James W. Shaw
Funeral services were held for James W. Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. George A. Shaw from their home, 15 Brattle Street Pl., at 9 A.M., today, with a funeral mass at St. James' Church at 10.

Mrs. Frances Johnstone
Services were held in Allston Saturday for Mrs. Frances Johnstone, widow of George M. Johnstone, formerly of Allston who died here Tuesday, Feb. 3.

Albert Sundberg
Albert Sundberg, 74, husband of Vanda W. (Jacobson) Sundberg, and a retired sea captain and veteran of the Spanish American War, died Monday at his home, 3 Long-fellow Rd.

For more than 25 years prior to his retirement in 1942, he was captain of one of the vessels of the Mystic Coal Co., Charlestown.

Besides his wife, he leaves two daughters, Mrs. Alice Ivson of Belmont, and Mrs. Evelyn Brown, Arlington, and three grandchildren.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon at the Berglund Home, 292 Mass Ave. Interment was at Gloucester.

GBI Hockey Title Almost Within Arlington's Grasp

With the Greater Boston Inter-collegiate League title almost within grasp, Arlington High's hockey team will blend all of its skill and energy this Saturday to vanquishing the Stoneham sextet.

For a victory over Stoneham could in itself clinch the title. There's a big IF in the situation, however, for Arlington could only annex the championship without further ado providing Medford loses its game this week to Belmont.

Arlington was able to defeat the strong Medford team last week—3 to 2—but whether Belmont can do the same remains to be seen. The situation could become complicated. If, for instance, Medford lost to Belmont but Arlington and Stoneham tied, four teams would be tied for first place—with 13 points apiece.

Arlington on Saturday administered to Medford its second consecutive setback.

Medford countered first, with a quick goal by Andy Gaffey at 1:04. Shortly afterwards, Joe Shea of Arlington took the puck in his own zone, skated up, and fired a long shot at the Medford goalie, Buddy Kiniry was right there to knock the rebound in and make it 1 to 1 at the end of the first period. In the second period, Arlington scored from a scramble in front of the Medford net, Bill Leary putting the puck in while laying on the ice. Stubborn Medford came right back though, with McNair scoring the equalizer on a neat pass from Charlie Abele at 5:47. Arlington won the game in the last period, when Ed Emory took the puck behind the Medford goal and fired a pass out in front, Randy Whitley, Medford goalie, trying to break up the play deflected the puck into his own net for the final goal.

See-Sawing Tilt Ends In Bow To Waltham Team

Playing for the top position in the Suburban Basketball League, Arlington High's cagers engaged Waltham's highly touted hoopers Friday in one of the wildest see-sawing affairs played at Arlington this year. The Waltham club finally came out on top, winning 30 to 27.

In the first half, neither team was able to hold a substantial edge, although Arlington managed to leave the floor leading 11 to 9. Coming out for the final half, the tension on both clubs was high. Arlington missed a golden opportunity, when with two minutes remaining in the game and a lead of 5 points, they couldn't freeze the ball. The Watchmakers took over from there, and enjoyed a slim 30 to 27 point margin as the game ended.

Both teams, particularly Arlington, excelled on the defense. Bob Carmody, who undoubtedly played his best game of the year both offensively and defensively, was high scorer with 11 points. Bartlett, Waltham forward, hooped in 9 points for the Waltham cause.

Legion Team Wins One, Loses One

With one win and one loss in the past week, the Arlington Legion team retained its second-place standing in the Middlesex County Legion League.

On Sunday, at Rindge Tech, Arlington lost to Cambridge 70 to 50. It was a different story though on Monday when, in a brisk tilt here, the locals defeated Reading 56 to 28.

O'Brien was high scorer in Sunday's game, with 13 points while Shea led Monday with 17 points.

'March Of Dimes' Ends Saturday

The 'March of Dimes' drive officially ends this Saturday, and Campaign Chairman William J. Sinclair urges all residents who have not yet returned the 'coin collectors' mailed to them to do so before the end of the week.

"Although the drive has been extended two weeks," he said, "returns have been slow coming in, and we're still worried about meeting our local quota of $7,500."

Jewish Women Here Urge U.S. Lift Arms Ban So Palestine Homeland Can Be Defended

Mrs. O'Neill Dies At 78 In House She Was Born In

Peirce PTA Hears Medford Teacher

The Peirce School Parent-Teacher Association last Wednesday evening heard as guest speaker Sedric Minas, member of the Medford High School Faculty and former U. S. Navy legal officer. "Educational Insufficiency and Juvenile Delinquency Hand in Hand" was the subject of his talk.

Parts of the "Mikado" were performed by members of the Arlington Friends of the Drama, under direction of Edward W. Center.

Mrs. Nellie B. O'Neill, widow of the late Frank O'Neill, died Sunday at the age of 78 in the home at 68 Warren St. where she was born back in 1870. A well known resident and member of St. Agnes' parish, she had been ill about ten days.

Mrs. O'Neill lived her entire life in the Warren St. residence, which she inherited from her parents, the late Thomas and Catherine Cleary, and which has been the family home for 90 years.

Her late husband, Frank, was in the coal business in Somerville many years. She leaves three daughters and a son, all of Arlington: Mrs. Maurice J. Scannell, Mrs. John Callahan, Mrs. James Brannen and Robert O'Neill. She is also survived by 13 grandchildren and three great grandchildren.

Two of her nephews, Rev. Joseph Leahy of Watertown and Rev. Daniel Leahy of Cambridge, officiated at a solemn high mass of requiem sung at St. Agnes' Church at 9 Thursday morning.

Arabs Getting War Munitions From Britain, Says Mrs. Perlmuter--Jews Face Invasion When British Withdraw May 15

The incoming new Jewish government in Palestine desperately needs arms to defend itself when the British withdraw from the country in May, Mrs. Harry Perlmuter of 303 Gray St., told members of Arlington Chapter of Haddassah.

The Jews must defend their new homeland from attack from five Arab countries which, she said, "are obtaining arms from Britain and have made it clear they plan an invasion when the British withdraw."

Members of Arlington Haddassah, following Mrs. Perlmuter's address at their meeting Tuesday of last week, joined in signing telegrams which were dispatched to both President Truman and the State Department, urging prompt action to make arms available for the defense of the Palestine Jewish community and to see that the United Nations implement their Palestine decision through the creation of an international police force.

"The Jews in Palestine are fighting to uphold the United Nations," declared Mrs. Perlmuter. "It was the UNO which decreed the new scheme of things in Palestine, but the United Nations have no means of enforcing the decision unless it is upheld by its members."

"The Palestine Commission of five members charged with setting up a provisional government cannot control the present violence, and there is need of an international police force both for Jews and Arabs."

"The British through previous commitments, are supplying arms to several of the Arab countries, so that the Arabs are well prepared for the invasion they plan of the new Jewish homeland after British withdraws May 15."

"The Jews, on the other hand, have no means of obtaining arms for defense but through the United States, and the United States has decreed an embargo. While not intentionally planned this way, the

2 HONORED FOR RED CROSS WORK

Mrs. Herbert M. Reed, 11 Wellington St., and Miss Caroline Higgins, 435 Pleasant St., were given special citations by John S. Ames, general chairman of the 1948 Greater Boston Red Cross Drive, for their sewing production at the Arlington Red Cross Chapter for World War II. The marks achieved were 11,000 and 12,000 hours served, respectively.

Other Arlington women cited were: Mrs. J. A. Smith, 14 Highland Ave., Mrs. Herbert A. Snow, 59 Claremont Ave., Mrs. Helen R. Teel, 73 Jackson St., Miss Marie Johnson, 34 Oak Knoll, and Miss Clara A. Wadleigh, 122 Pleasant St.

Business Men Are Interesting A 'Know Your Merchants' Series

Ted Frangolis, manager of Peterson's Jewelry Store at 9 Medford St., says that he has no prescription for success except serving his customers in an attractive, congenial atmosphere.

A large per cent of his stock is nationally advertised jewelry, watches, leather goods, glass and china gifts, silverplate and sterling flatware, etc. All of these products are priced the same as all over the country, or less.

"Ted," a certified watchmaker, spends a large part of his time repairing jewelry and putting "little Bens" in running order, usually in less time than consumed by the large Boston watch repair stores. The high standard of his workmanship and quality of his merchandise account for the large number who patronize his shop regularly.

He likes to think of himself and his next door neighbor, Hy Finn, as the friendliest merchants in town.

One thing is sure, however: the Peterson Jewelry stores are no amateurish venture. There has been one in Needham for 27 years and another in West Roxbury six years. The Arlington shop is the baby brother, with a calendar age of seven months.

Hyman Finn, a veteran of 4½ years' overseas service with the fourth Armored Division, is the proprietor of the Stylecraft Men's Shop, 8 Medford St. ("Hy" was too bashful to have his picture taken by the PRESS photographer.)

He specializes in name brands of men's and boys' wearing apparel because most people have great faith in nationally advertised and distributed products. For those patrons who buy merchandise on its appearance, fabric, etc., and never look at the manufacturer's label, he carries a number of locally-made products which equal the former in quality.

Mr. Finn attributes the fine reception of his enterprise in Arlington Center, to his constant policy of satisfying the customer's demands. A good sign of the customer's satisfaction is the large amount of repeat business which he has. He also boasts of the large volume of Christmas sales he made, with few exchanges and no refunds afterwards.

The ten-month-old Stylecraft shop is extremely convenient for "time-short" shoppers who find Mr. Finn's prices and values the same as those in Boston Department Stores. His stock includes: slacks, hats, ties, shirts, wool jackets and shirts, leather belts, socks, handkerchiefs, and many more unusual products too numerous to be mentioned here.

LOCAL STORE FINDS FOLKS HONEST

Yes, most people are honest.

They're quite convinced of that fact at Pierson's Drug Store, at the corner of Mass. Ave. and Medford St., where folks who buy newspapers make their own change.

The customers have been doing that for three years—making their own change from the pennies, nickels and dimes spread out on the papers—and Daniel Smith, the company's treasurer, doesn't figure the store has lost a penny.

"I think most people appreciate being trusted," he says. "Besides, we like the system because it saves time—our time, and the customers' time."

Bodies of 2 Local Heroes, Lt. Benner and Sgt. Nash, Due Home For Re-Burial

Among the 2785 bodies of American service men and women aboard the Army Transport "Cardinal O'Connell", which docked at San Francisco, Wednesday, were the flag draped caskets of 2nd Lt. Stanley Benner, USMC, 11 Avon Pl., and S-Sgt. Albert T. Nash, USA, 36 River St.

Sgt. Nash was the husband of Mrs. Anna Nash.

Lt. Benner was the husband of Mrs. Gertrude A. Benner, and the son of Mrs. Herman Benner. He was born in Arlington, graduated from A. H. S. and also from Tilton Academy. He was attending the University of New Hampshire when he enlisted in 1940. He was sent to the Pacific in March, 1942, and met death at Guadalcanal, October 27, 1942.

Both the bodies will be sent to the Brooklyn Army Base before being transferred home for re-committal services.

Sports Stars To Be Guests At Legion's 'Father And Son' Program Tomorrow Night

With a fine and diversified program scheduled, and every war veteran in Arlington and every son of a veteran invited to attend, a capacity attendance is expected tomorrow night, Friday, when Arlington's American Legion Post holds its 30th annual Father and Son night.

The invitation to all veterans, whether or not they belong to the Legion, was extended this week by Jr. Vice-Comm. George Benney, head of post activities.

The evening's entertainment will be highlighted by the presence of Marvin Westenberg, former world's heavy weight wrestling champion who will be remembered under the ring name of 'Masked Marvel.' Marvin plans to challenge anyone present to an exhibition bout, and if he's taken up on the challenge the audience will be in for a real treat.

There will be three fast-tempo bouts, a sleight-of-hand performance by Walt Taylor, an outstanding professional magician, and police Sgt. Harold Pick, committee chairman, has other entertainment in store.

Guests of honor will include Joe Coleman, Arlington's own member of the Athletics; Paul Bowers, well known sports promoter, and others.

The program will be staged at eastern Junior High School.

Gil Dodds Gets Mumps On Day After He Speaks Here

Speaking on the general theme of "Following through" and "finishing a race once it's started," the famous racer Gil Dodds—who incidentally, is an ordained minister—gave no indication when he spoke in Arlington Sunday that he was about to come down with a case of the mumps.

The Men's Class at the First Baptist Church, 819 Mass. Ave., turned out in force at a noon meeting to hear the visiting sports star. The next day, Monday, the winner of 33 consecutive foot races was taken to Haynes Memorial Hospital, and Boston papers headlined: "Dodds Mumps Give Promoters $25,000 Pain"—referring to what his illness would cost race promoters if complications led to prolonged hospitalization.

"He seemed in excellent health when he spoke here," commented the Rev. Nathan W. Wood.

Strict Rules Proposed For Parks, Playground Conduct

Regulations governing use of Arlington's parks, playgrounds and bathing places would be considerably tightened under a set of suggested new town by-laws submitted by the park department, and to be voted on at the March town meeting.

Fines of not more than $20 for each offense would be provided for anyone damaging park or playground property.

Punishable offenses would also include: Accosting anyone, littering the grounds, careless discard of cigarettes, use of profane or abusive language, drinking, undue noise or disturbance, gambling, loitering, unrestrained dogs, riding bicycles in restricted areas or playing golf.

It is also provided that "no person shall within a park or playground area... except with the written consent of the park commissioners, preach or pray aloud or make an oration, or any political or other canvass."

Valentine 'Reunion'

San Sabino Lodge Auxiliary will hold a "Gala Valentine Reunion" this Saturday evening, at Chestnut Hall on Chestnut St.

The committee chairman is Miss Angelina DeMotto, who will be assisted by Miss Lucy Leto and Miss Antonette Baldi. All members are invited to attend.

WARREN CLEANERS "A Distinctive Cleansing Service"

It is our pleasure to include in this Business Review, this new cleansing firm, the scope and usefulness of whose services is being welcomed by many individuals throughout this area. Their services are indeed meeting with the full approval of all their patrons.

With a brand new up-to-date plant, located here in Arlington, at 23-25 Mystic Street, telephone, Ar 5-8250, the WARREN CLEANERS will certainly do their share in relieving many of us as to our cleansing problems, even to the cleaning of hats and gloves.

In a new, modernly equipped plant, and with the very latest in equipment, it is no wonder that thus far all the work has been done beautifully at all times. You really do not have to hesitate in sending your clothing to this firm, even as to your formal garments, because one cardinal rule practiced from the very inception of this cleansing establishment, has been to use only the finest of supplies essential to this type of business in turning out only the most superior custom finished work.

The management of WARREN CLEANERS, with over twenty years of experience in this business, have surrounded themselves with some of the most efficient and experienced employees in this trade. It is no wonder, therefore, that this firm is enabled to render a complete and distinctive service to many well satisfied individuals. The satisfaction of these patrons, since the opening of this establishment, and throughout the years to come, will be the best gauge upon which to judge the services which are so well performed here.

We certainly have no qualms in recommending the services of Arlington's newest cleansing plant, the WARREN CLEANERS, to all our readers and friends, and in closing we do want to compliment the management upon this fine establishment which he has opened here, and the personnel upon the excellent cleansing service which they are at all times rendering, whether the job be large or small.

DANIELSON'S FOOD STORE

We are very pleased to include in our Business Review of those establishments best servicing the people of our area, DANIELSON'S FOOD STORE, located here in Arlington, at 134 Massachusetts Avenue, telephone, Ar 5-1773.

This is one of the most modern markets to be found in our community, and with up to date facilities, this fine market is catering in a complete manner to the needs of its large list of satisfied patrons, by offering a comprehensive choice of meats of highest quality, high grade poultry and dairy products.

Under very capable management, the DANIELSON'S FOOD STORE is meeting the requirements in an excellent manner in the meat and grocery lines, satisfying the wants of their patrons at all times.

In this modern market, a full line of canned goods of every description is carried, together with fresh farm products and an excellent assortment of fruits. A free and efficient delivery service is maintained for the convenience of the public.

The management of DANIELSON'S FOOD STORE is at all times very particular in regard to the type of products and their freshness, before they accept goods for sale, thus assuring their many customers of products which are not only pure and health giving, but also delicious to eat.

We are certainly pleased to mention these facts with reference to this conscientious establishment, which is serving many families throughout this area, and we take added pleasure at this time in recommending this splendidly managed market to our readers and friends as a place where they can trade with the utmost confidence.

We are sure that as long as they continue to serve the residents of this section, they will always give the same lasting satisfaction in the future which they have so well done in the past.

O'NEIL SISTERS

Expert Instruction in all Forms of Dancing

We wonder how many people throughout this section of the state are aware of the fact that we have right here in our midst one of the finest and leading dancing schools and instructors. In this day and age of the ever-changing forms of dancing, the teaching of modern and classic dancing has become an important profession in every community, but like every other business, there are all kinds of dancing schools, some fair, some good. In this respect, realizing that this is one of our most outstanding schools, we are, therefore, pleased to bring to the attention of our readers, that of the O'NEIL SISTERS, under the direction of individuals who are recognized by the profession as well qualified in this line of work.

Whether it be your intention to take up dancing, and this includes all forms of dancing, as a profession, entertainment or as a matter of exercise, it is our suggestion that you pay a visit to this fine studio, located in Arlington, at 661 Massachusetts Avenue, and talk the matter over with either of the O'NEIL SISTERS, directors of the school. Or you may just drop a card or telephone Ar 5-1149, and you will receive the desired information. You will find them most understanding, having the utmost patience, which is a great asset in this particular profession.

It makes no difference whether you are a beginner or are already quite proficient in dancing, you will certainly derive a great deal of satisfaction in attending these classes, or if you prefer, private instruction. In addition, they feature most excellent classes for children, which very definitely should not be overlooked.

There is really nothing more distressing at a party or dance than to be a wall flower, and when one considers the fact that with very little effort and at a nominal cost, this can be easily remedied, it is a wonder that every individual does not dance.

We are glad to have this opportunity of commending the O'NEIL SISTERS because of the fine services which they are rendering in this profession to the people here in Arlington.

POLIO VICTIMS, FROM INFANCY TO 26, FIND HOPE AND HELP AT CLINIC HERE

An infantile paralysis clinic and the services of an experienced physiotherapist have been maintained at the Visiting Nurses Association, Headquarters, Court St., for the past 20 years. This is one of the Massachusetts Infantile Paralysis and partly by special contributions, dedicated solely to the treatment of children and adults who have been stricken with the dread disease.

"Although it has been established for this length of time polio sufferers, who would profit from attending the clinic's regular Friday exists," according to Mrs. Alice

Doney, physiotherapist in charge. "And," she continues, "every week, following recommendations from specialists at the Boston Clinic, regular treatments are given, not only with the idea of strengthening weakened muscles but also to attempt to facilitate use of deteriorated muscles."

Patients are only charged for use of apparatus, when it is necessary and not for treatments. Victims of all financial standings and ages, from babies to 26 years, are attending the clinic which is able to alleviate their suffering through every American's contribution to the "March of Dimes Campaign."

GLADYS M. PARKS General Insurance Representing John C. Paige Company

The insurance business today is a highly specialized field, in which one is successful not so much because of one's aggressiveness, as in years gone by, but rather upon one's knowledge and readiness to serve in this important profession.

Then, too, the success of any business is measured by many of us in dollars and cents, but when a firm or individual has attained that success because of good honest service to its clients, it is this writer's honest opinion that such a firm or individual certainly merits the esteem of its neighbors. In this respect we know that many of our citizens who have had dealings with GLADYS M. PARKS will most certainly agree with us that she deserves to be mentioned in a Review of the outstanding services available.

Miss Gladys M. Parks has always fulfilled the necessary requirements of one in this business, and now more than ever her keen knowledge of the general insurance business, backed by her experience with the John C. Paige Company, stands her in good stead in meeting the demands of a more highly educated insurance public.

There is an old adage - "It is Too Late to Lock the Barn Door after the Horse is Stolen," - a saying which might well apply to many of us in reference to the loss of our properties, valuables, and in fact, our very lives. It is then, of course, too late to buy insurance. We feel sure that you can call this office or Miss Park's home, at almost any time, and without any obligation upon yourself and without any thought of profit upon her part, she will be pleased to advise you and make a survey and an analysis of your policies and present needs.

Miss Parks has always made it a point to represent companies providing the most improved coverage at the lowest possible cost commensurate with safety. Consequently this office can usually provide broad protection at a substantially low cost.

Located in Boston at 40 Broad Street, telephone, HU 2-5231, and at her residence here in Arlington at 15 Swan Street, telephone Ar 5-0691-M, Miss Parks writes every form of insurance.

ARLINGTON HARDWARE, INC.

The manner in which the ARLINGTON HARDWARE, INC., has always taken care of the wants and needs of this territory in the hardware, paints and affiliated lines, tells its own story of the success of the policy in giving good values at fair prices, and certainly merits prominent and praiseworthy mention in a Business Review of the selected establishments of Arlington.

Ever since its establishment here, they have been pursuing this policy, and as a progressive business firm, under the very capable management of Mr. Robert E. Knuefer, they adjust themselves to the times and the season.

The continuance of this progressive policy has worked out to the advantage and complete satisfaction of all with whom they have done business with in the past, and the confidence and patronage which this local hardware company enjoys, is the ultimate result of the efforts put forth to win patronage strictly upon the basis of performance and fair dealings at all times.

Located here in Arlington at 665 Massachusetts Avenue, telephone, Ar 5-1551, the ARLINGTON HARDWARE, INC., has come to be looked upon as hardware headquarters by many hundreds of people throughout Arlington and surrounding areas as well.

For it is here that they know they will always find a complete line of shelf hardware supplies, kitchenware, wellknown paints, etc., to mention just a few of the thousands of items always kept in stock here.

Courteous and efficient to a marked degree, they render a real individual service, and whether your purchase be large or small, the same careful interest and attention is given to all their patrons at all times. They are always ready to render any suggestions that will aid in making selections to better serve the purpose of utmost utility.

These facts speak for themselves in regard to the advantages which their patrons enjoy in doing business here, and reflect credit upon the management in striving to make every customer a lasting friend.

In commending the ARLINGTON HARDWARE, INC., upon their straight forward business policies, we urge all our readers to visit this enterprising hardware firm and look over the metropolitan stock always on display here.

KATHERINE P. CUMMINGS Beauty Shoppe

Perhaps more than anything else in the world it is the desire of all women to be beautiful. To the beauty of Helen of Troy has been attributed the launching of a thousand ships, and the historic charm of Cleopatra has come down to us as surpassing all description. The pages of history are replete with the accounts of women who have swayed the fate of empires with their comeliness of face and figure. We do not know for certain upon what standard beauty was judged in those early days, but it would seem that it was by no means a common attribute of all women.

Today, however, all women can be attractive through beauty culture, and the American girl through the medium of the silver screen, has become the exemplar of feminine pulchritude the world over.

Thus, by the way of ancient Greece, Rome and Hollywood, do we arrive at home in a lightning short study of beauty down through the ages, and we find here women whose beauty and charm perhaps far exceed that of her for whose favor was sought the golden apple, or yet of her whose limpid glances paralyzed the noble will of a palpitating Anthony.

Foremost in enhancing the natural loveliness of many hundreds of women throughout the Arlington area, has been the KATHERINE P. CUMMINGS BEAUTY SHOPPE, located at 238 Massachusetts Ave., next to the Post Office in East Arlington, telephone Ar 5-4529, which ever since its establishment here in the practice of all forms of beauty culture, has attained the status of a fine art.

Utterly modern in decoration, the KATHERINE P. CUMMINGS BEAUTY SHOPPE presents a beautiful picture in itself, and is thoroughly well equipped.

The services are performed by expert operators, trained in the most advanced methods of modern beauty culture, under the strict supervision of Miss Katherine P. Cummings.

You will find, too, that they not only take pleasure in serving you here, but also in every case give you the same careful attention and treatment whether the work is large or small.

We therefore take pleasure in presenting in this Business Review the KATHERINE P. CUMMINGS BEAUTY SHOPPE, to our readers as the place where "Milady Fair" always receives the utmost in satisfactory service and expert advice in all matters pertaining to her personal appearance.

Mrs. C. A. Chisholm

Services for Mrs. Catherine A. (Bailey) Chisholm, 80, widow of Duncan J. Chisholm, 20 Pond Lane, were held Tuesday from that address. A high mass of requiem was celebrated at St. Agnes' Church at 9 A.M. She leaves two daughters: Mrs. Margaret E. McMenimen, Arlington with whom she lived, and Mrs. William Olson of Cleveland; a son, William Chisholm, Dorchester, and a sister, Mrs. Elizabeth Chisholm of Dorchester.

PAUL REAL ESTATE

John J. Paul

We may as well begin this article with a maxim - the truth of which is strengthened by the long haul experience of wise investors, i. e., "Real Estate Is Still a Most Solid Investment." However, the trends and changes developing both locally and internationally are necessarily of the utmost importance to those contemplating home ownership.

The exercise of wise selection, therefore, should dictate the choice of an expert in the realty field, both for those who are present property holders and for prospective home owners.

The firm of PAUL REAL ESTATE, located here in Arlington, at 964 Massachusetts Avenue, telephone Ar 5-4900, certainly fulfills all the qualifications of authorities in this regard. With a fund of valuable knowledge gained in a successful experience throughout the past twenty years, at his command, Mr. John J. Paul is very definitely in an excellent position of giving sound advice in all matters pertaining to the present day intricate problems of real estate.

In meeting the demands and efficiently solving the problems presented to him, Mr. Paul has won many friends who look to him for guidance in the realty field. You really do not have to hesitate in consulting with him, for he is at all times glad to render whatever advice possible. This, we might add, is in a good measure responsible for the confidence and friendship which he enjoys among his many clients.

Mortgages, rentals, appraisals and management are other important phases of the services of this office and if you are about to sell or buy, a consultation with Mr. Paul will result in the drawing up of the mortgage plan best suited to your needs, and it is a fact that many excellent buys in real estate properties are always available from a list of offerings which are always on hand here.

The foregoing facts speak for themselves in reference to this fine local real estate agency of PAUL REAL ESTATE, whose services might well be taken advantage of by all our readers and friends.

LESTER L. PEASE Amoco Station

We are very pleased to include in this Review in presenting the most outstanding services to our readers, this comparatively new establishment which should very definitely be a distinct aid to motorists of this community. The LESTER L. PEASE AMOCO STATION, at 1116 Massachusetts Avenue, corner of Quincy street, telephone, Ar 5-5696, is proving to be a most popular stopping place for local as well as transient motorists, because of the excellence of the many services which they are rendering to a well satisfied public.

Featuring here the always reliable AMOCO PRODUCTS, which have obtained an enviable reputation as being among the highest test gasoline and oils of today, this service station certainly is measuring up to all these standards which go to make for an expert friendly type of service.

Since the very opening of this new establishment, LESTER PEASE has concentrated his efforts on the sound policy of winning patronage strictly on the basis of performance. Towards this end, too, he is planning from time to time to add on new equipment and conveniences, which should greatly enlarge the capacity to serve his patrons. This striving to give complete satisfaction, backed by his ability and equipment, is enabling this AMOCO STATION to anticipate the needs of motorists, to efficiently handle their many problems, and is bringing mutually beneficial rewards both to the business itself and the many satisfied patrons who in reality are the ultimate beneficiaries.

Featuring specialized lubrication, you will find this station an excellent choice in changing your lubrication in the various seasons—in addition to the many other outstanding services which he has originated for the convenience of the autoists of Arlington.

We are pleased to note these attractive points in regard to the services of the LESTER L. PEASE AMOCO STATION, which is rendering such a high calibre of service to the motoring public in our area, and we suggest that before you take any trip, you stop in here and have your car put into tip-top shape for comfortable, worry-free, enjoyable journey.

We are pleased to have this opportunity of wishing Lester L. Pease the utmost success in this new service station which he has established here.

P. J. COX & SONS Funeral Home Established 1909

The firm of P. J. COX & SONS, under the direction of John J. Cox and Gladys F. Cox, has always rendered a reliable and conscientious service to the people of this section of the state in this important profession.

With funeral homes located here at Arlington Heights, at 11 Appleton Street, telephone, Ar 5-5405, and at 11 Highland Street, in Woburn, this firm has always been distinguished by its ability to conform its services to each individual situation. The efforts put forth to help lessen the anguish and sorrow of those who mourn a departed loved one and the deeper understanding which is a necessary requirement of those engaged in this important profession are all apparent at every funeral which they conduct.

From the very moment that these funeral directors are called upon, until the very last duty is performed, not a single minute detail is overlooked, not the least semblance of confusion, but rather a systematic smooth running service is rendered that bespeaks of the deep thought and interest that they take, and this holds true in every case, whether rich or poor, elaborate funeral or just a simple one.

Then, too, one is impressed upon entering this fine Funeral Home by the excellent atmosphere of intimate privacy and home like comfort, the thorough equipment needed for the complete services, and it is a fact that you are instilled with the feeling of confidence of newly made friends who are at your service at your time of grief and who take care of all the little details which are so distressing in your hour of deepest sorrow.

From the very hour when deaths removes from our midst the beloved member of a family, these funeral directors step in and assume complete responsibility for all arrangements as they are most capable of doing because of their modern study and long years of experience in this profession, as a matter of fact, almost forty years.

We are very pleased in this Review of this section of Middlesex County, to commend the firm of P. J. COX & SONS upon the very satisfactory services which they are rendering to the public, and wish them continued success in their fine and humane efforts.

Questions Cost Of New School

Editor, Press:

In connection with the proposed expenditure of $600,000 for a new elementary school, I wonder exactly how much it is planned to spend for the school site?

I've heard reports that as much as $60,000 will be spent for the land, although only a few years ago this same land was assessed at only about $4,500. There are some rather serious rumors in this connection—rumors that 'someone' stands to make money out of the deal.

I think we have a well conducted town, with better-than-average officials. But I DO believe, in this case, that we could stand the light of more publicity. The taxpayers are entitled to all of the information bearing on the lost of the contemplated new school.

A Reader

ARLINGTON RIDGE

"A Beautiful Development" James Taurasi — Builder

It is one of the fondest hopes of the average wage earner in America today to own his own home. With the impetus provided toward the realization of this hope by the many time payment plans now in operation in this country, home ownership is easily attainable. Security, comfort and the great degree of confidence in facing the future which owning one's own home brings to a man and his family are considerations which cannot be measured by any monetary yard stick, and it becomes therefore no less than a duty to strive to attain this goal.

In choosing a home many important features are necessarily involved—its location and the suitability of the house itself for present and contemplated needs: in which might be included its proximity to schools and churches and transportation facilities, yet sufficiently suburban to provide the maximum of sunshine and general healthful accompaniments.

All of these details were kept in mind in the planning of Arlington Ridge, and what constitutes liveable homes in ideal surroundings is a credit to the far sightedness of Mr. Taurasi, who is carrying these plans to fruition.

Here at ARLINGTON RIDGE are beautiful modern American Homes embodying every up to date feature you could want or need. Architecturally beautiful and of sturdy construction, they can be bought at most attractive prices on a budget plan designed for the modest income. Built by Mr. Taurasi, one of our local residents, with office telephone Ar 5-3640 and resident telephone Ar 5-4508, these homes represent the finest kinds of buys for a lifetime of satisfaction. There is little doubt but that they will be accorded the measure of acceptance by home lovers which is their just due, not forgetting of course the special attention which is given to ex G. I.'s. In closing, we want to take this opportunity of commending Mr. James Taurasi upon the excellent judgment shown in the building of this development and of beautiful homes which in our opinion will make Arlington a much better residential center. We urge all our readers to by all means pay a visit here and look over these beautiful well-built homes.

GUSTIE'S RESTAURANT

Serving Fine Food and Beverages

Traditionally famous as one of the most popular centers for the choicest of meals and fine beverages, Gustie's Restaurant, located here in nearby Cambridge at 1812 Massachusetts Ave., is, today, upholding those traditions which have made it popular with all who have enjoyed their appetizing dishes and prevailing hospitality.

Indeed, it may be said that lovers of good food have one thing in common — they know where the best in these specialties can be obtained. And because of this knowledge, Gustie's Restaurant enjoys a large patronage among the discriminating people throughout this entire area.

It is seldom that one comes into contact with real, honest-to-goodness cooking — the sort that we are led to believe that Grandmother prepared — but here they really do take pleasure in taking pains to achieve a quality of the culinary art in the preparation of the appetizing dishes which Grandmother might well feel proud of.

A more sparkling clean, up-to-date, air conditioned throughout and with a fine Cocktail Lounge, or more attractively furnished establishment, it would be difficult to find anywhere and there is, none, to our mind, which merits a greater measure of popularity. Gracious service and pleasant hospitality add to its distinctiveness and charm. Then, too, because of the excellent Banquet Hall that they also have here, they are able to provide facilities for parties, banquets and all types of festive occasions, so, therefore, if you would have your party or banquet a decided success, then by all means, just phone Kirkland 7-3733 and everything will be taken care of in fine fashion and you will find the rates most reasonable.

With everything carefully supervised by the management, this fine establishment is rendering this high type of service to an appreciative public, everyone being catered to in a manner that bespeaks of a sincere desire to serve at all times, and in commending Mr. J. A. Gustie upon the manner in which it is always conducted, we want to recommend this place to our readers as one well worthy of your complete patronage.

'What Other Folks Are Reading,' Is Discussed By Mrs. Palmer

The Arlington Women's Club held its regular meeting last Thursday at 2 P.M. at Robbins Town Hall, when the Literature and Drama Committee under direction of the chairman, Mrs. C. Wesley Johnson, presented Mrs. Mildred B. Palmer, noted lecturer and book reviewer.

Mrs. Palmer, who is no stranger to the club members, since she lived in Arlington for a number of years and has spoken at many of their "book sessions," handled the subject: "What Other Folks Are Reading" in a very witty manner.

Included were the following books: "The Bishop's Mantle", "The Day That Must Dawn", "East Side, West Side", "The House Divided", "Lo, the Poor Egyptian", "Garretson Chronicle", "The Yankee Drummer", "The House That Jacob Built", "Back Home", "Red Plush", "Raintree County", "The Proper Bostonians", "The Times of Melville and Whitman", and "Hope of Earth".

At the business portion of the meeting, it was announced that February 19, the all day meeting, will be set aside as Public Health Day. Many medical and public health authorities will speak during the day, in an effort to further educate the public on this subject. Prizes will be awarded for the two best posters made in the Public Health Poster Contest which is now being carried on at the Junior High Schools. The posters will be exhibited at the Town Hall on that day. Luncheon will also be served in the hall by a group of ladies from the First Unitarian Church. Tickets are 85c and must be purchased by Monday, February 16, at the Treasure Chest.

Since February 26-29 is "American Brotherhood Week", the Women's Club meeting on February 26 will sponsor this theme. An executive committee will try to bring together the three major faiths, on that day—Catholics, Protestants, and Jews.

A vote was taken in favor of telegraphing this district's Congressman to support Bill 683, which provides for an appropriation of $50,000 to fight the Dutch Elm Disease, which is attacking so much of the plant life in Massachusetts.

Mrs. Keith made her report on the Marshall Plan mass meeting which she attended as a delegate of the Women's Club, at Faneuil Hall, recently. Although the club is not supporting the plan, those interested were asked to see Mrs. Keith about petitions and publicity.

Scouts To Collect Paper and Rags

Starting this Saturday and continuing until Feb. 21, Boy Scout troop nine will collect waste paper and rags throughout Arlington. Homes and places of business will be canvassed first by the scouts, and then, trucks will call at the address to pick up the material found. Luncheon will also be served

$70,000 Building To Be Constructed Here

Theodore Bernsen, 17 Sunapee Rd., has been given a permit to construct a block of five stores at 30 to 36 Mystic St. Estimated cost of the building is $70,000. A store building now at 30 Mystic St. is to be demolished to make room for the larger structure.

Orchestra's Instruments And Use Described As Philharmonic Entertains

A large audience of boys and girls attended the musical program rendered by the Arlington Philharmonic Society, Sunday at Robbins Town Hall. This was one of the series of fine arts programs being sponsored by the Parent-Teachers Association of the town.

Carole Lee Sandler, 15 year old sophomore at Arlington high school and pianist for the high school orchestra, played the "Grieg Piano Concerto in A Minor".

Leo Litwin, conductor of the local orchestra and pianist for the Boston Pops Orchestra, described most of the musical instruments and their function in the scores.

The program included: "Prelude to 'Hansel and Gretel,'" "Nutcracker Suite," "Overture Miniature," "March," "Dance Arabe," "Chinese Dance," "Dance of the Reed Futes"; and "Valse des Fleurs."

The choral group delivered: "Listen to the Lambs," with Miss Gracia Eagleson, soloist. Scotch Songs: "Coming Thro' the Rye," "The Drum," Ye Watchers and Ye Holy Ones."

The men's glee club handled the "Wiffenpoof Song," "Ma Little Banjo," and "Old Man Noah."

Plant And Animal Life Present In Single Drop Of Water Shown In Library Plastic Exhibit Here

A still-life representation of one drop of ordinary fresh water, magnified 300 times, and exhibiting the microscopic plants and animals present in it, is part of plastic display at the Robbins Memorial Library, through the courtesy of the New England Museum of Natural History during the entire month of February.

This large reproduction is sided by smaller ones, in show cases, which exhibit each plant and animal present in the larger, reproduced in exact likeness, in plastic with its name and explanation of its purpose and habits.

Such visual aids to education, of which this display is a forerunner, are expected to make biology and botany lively and interesting subjects, in contrast to the manner in which they are received by most present-day students.

Mr. Edwin H. Reiber, who constructed this project, is a biological authority as well as an artist. The display, which will belong to Boston's New Museum of Science when a building is provided, has been touring educational institutions about the state and will continue to do so, until its permanent home is ready.

Burn Away The Snow? Well, They're Willing To Be Shown

Burdened this year with a much greater snow removal job than usual, local highway officials have been watching with interest—if not exactly with high hopes—experiments being undertaken at M. I. T. to find, if possible, some faster means of snow disposal.

Boston's Mayor Curley thinks that wartime flame-throwers might be adapted for use to melt snow off city streets, or that chemists might possibly develop some chemical that would do the same job.

ARROW MOTORS SERVICES 1,000 CARS IN 6 MONTHS; SPACE TO BE TRIPLED

Though in business at 36 Mass Ave. only six months, Arrow Motors Inc., Pontiac agency and service station, already has serviced more than 1,000 autos—the 1,000th car having been serviced just last week.

So fine has been the reception accorded this new enterprise that its present 5,000 feet of floor space is being expanded by the rental of an additional 10,000 feet of adjoining space—all under roof, and providing room to service 22 cars at a time.

An interesting thing about Arrow Motors is that the two owners bear the same name: Bob Longpre and Bob Longpre. They're not a father and son team, but first cousins.

The first Bob Longpre, who is service manager, was connected with the Pontiac factory in Pontiac, Mich., for some ten years beginning in 1937—with the exception of two years out for Army service. His father, R.J. Longpre, is Pontiac's production manager; the sons service in every branch of the factory has given him a very detailed understanding of everything connected with Pontiac cars.

The second Bob Longpre, who is sales manager, was formerly a salesman with Armour's—also in Pontiac, Mich. He is, at the moment very proud of the new 1948 Pontiacs, several models of which are now on display at the company's fast-expanding showrooms.

"We know the Pontiac car and that's why we decided we wanted to sell Pontiacs," commented the first Bob Longpre—or maybe it was the second Bob Longpre speaking. (They're quite agreed on that point!)

9 PTA Groups Meet Tonight

The Arlington Council of Parent-Teachers Associations is holding a meeting of the nine member associations, this Thursday evening at 8 P.M., in the Robbins Memorial Town Hall.

Dr. Wendell Yeo, Boston University professor of Sociology, will speak, taking as his subject "What is a Home For?"

The Junior High West Orchestra, under direction of Mr. Hassler Eizing, will entertain.

Varied Program By Apollo Club Enjoyed

The Apollo Club of Boston, was successfully presented by the First Universalist Church, at Robbins Memorial Town Hall, last Wednesday, in the second in their series of adventure and music programs.

The following selections were presented by Nicholas Slonimsky, conductor, assisted by Louise Scarrano, soprano; Walter Knight, flute; and Helen Zoe Duncan, pianist: "Adoramus To Christie," "Border Ballad," "From Boston Harbor," "Arion G'licensai," "Song of Night," "Winter Song," "Laudamus," "Negro Spirituals," "Deep River" and "Promised Land," "The Lord's Prayer," "Let Hear the Gentle Lark," "Radiant Stars," "The Musical Trust" and "Omniptotence."

I Wonder?

I WONDER who is the liquor dealer who advertises: "A jug of wine and thou . . . save the bread; wine 69 cents a quart."?

I WONDER if Mrs. Alice Dorney, physiotherapist at the Arlington Infantile Paralysis Clinic, isn't considered the most understanding person in the world, by her patients?

I WONDER if Arlington adults who hated science while studying it in school, wouldn't be fascinated by "What's In a Drop of Water Exhibit" at the Robbins Library?

I WONDER why the patrolman who often is stationed in front of Pearson's Drug Store looks so melancholy?

I WONDER how much the Citizens' Committee endorsements will mean in the town election?

I WONDER if the "Texas" team in the Boys' Club basketball league will ever dig itself out of the cellar?

I WONDER if it is necessary to spend as much as $600,000 for a new grammar school building?

I WONDER how many other towns have a town clerk who is always so anxious to please everyone?

I WONDER if we'll dare to make any more typographical errors in this column, after all the phone calls we got last week?

I WONDER how long before we'll be complaining about the heat?

I WONDER if they've been surprised at Food Lane's super market to find hundreds of new faces among their customers, since they've been advertising in the Press?

I WONDER who said she looked forward to the Press each week "just for the I Wonder column"?

I WONDER if Teresa M. would like us to mention her name sometime?

I WONDER if Mrs. Hamill ever she feeds at Spy Pond?

I WONDER if Dwight Davis ever will open a branch photo studio in Arlington?

I WONDER who is the Arlington artist whose patronage has grown so that he hardly has time to eat?

I WONDER if we don't appreciate that sample of his carving that 81-year-old Christopher Robinson brought us last week?

I WONDER how many customers at Frank's Steak House in North Cambridge have proposed to Connie the waitress, before they found out she has a handsome husband?

I WONDER who were the three girls who were sharing one coke between them at Jane's luncheonette Tuesday?

I WONDER if the report is true that Fire Capt. William Eagan scored the highest percentage in the civil service exams for deputy chief?

I WONDER who's the haberdasher?

Assessors Busy Adding New Apartments And Homes To Tax Lists

Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Tolman became the very proud grandparents of twins this week. They live at 260 Mass Ave., as did their son, Merrill, who moved to Dedham when he married Ruth M. Jagger of New Haven, Conn.

William Thomas Yelland and his wife, the former Ella Mae Wolverton, of 39 Summit St. are the parents of one of the three boys born in Arlington this week.

The second male arrival was born to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Norman Hirsch while Mrs. Hirsch, the former Dorothea Claire Barbera, was visiting her mother-in-law at 18 Surrey Rd. Mr. and Mrs. Hirsch's home is at 43 Main St., Yorkville, New York.

Taxi Driver Thomas Francis Crosby, 64 Franklin St., and his wife, the former Shirley Elizabeth Hughes, are the parents of the third boy of the week.

The only bit of feminine loveliness was delivered by the stork to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Holsberg Holmes, 36 Florence Ave. Mrs. Holmes is the former Mary A. Weidner.

Just A Joke?

Some woman or girl played a peculiar "joke" on the police last week.

The phone rang at police headquarters and an excited feminine voice said: "This is Mrs. MacDougall. There's trouble at 86 Parker St. Please send a squad car right away."

And the caller rang off.

A squad car sent to Parker St. found there was no number 86. The phone call was checked, and it was learned the call had come from out of town.

Scouts Preparing For Annual Exposition Here March 20

The annual Exposition of the Arlington Unit of the Boy Scouts will be held Sat., March 20, at Robbins Town Hall. Its purpose is to acquaint parents and friends with the many educational and recreational activities of the Scouts, the results of which will be exhibited.

Co-chairmen Harry C. Behr and Willis Munroe have announced the following committees: Cubbing; Edward Parr, George McManis, Charles Armour, Joseph Davis; Scouting; Warren Swiker, James Rourke, Jr., Frank Doran; Senior

Several new apartment buildings—including a 75-apartment structure nearing completion on Mass. Ave., between Oxford and Grafton Sts.—and several small new industries, as well as a number of new homes, are being listed for the first time this year on the town assessors' rolls.

Whether these new ratables will offset increased town expenditures, and be reflected in the 1946 town rate, is something—however—one can tell at this juncture.

This is the busy time of year for the town's three assessors, and by the time they have completed listing and evaluating new properties—both real estate and personal—a substantial increase is expected in the town's taxable property, which last year totalled $57,619,550.

Arthur W. Sampson, chairman of the board of assessors, and his two colleagues, William O. Hauser and Walter S. Coledge Jr., are currently very busy visiting all sections of town checking up on new construction, additions, new businesses, etc.

While their work has a bearing on the annual tax rate, the rate of taxation hinges upon several other important factors. Increased ratables may be offset, for instance, by added appropriations made at town meeting, or by increased state or county assessments, and the 1948 tax naturally cannot be set until these latter figures are known.

All of the figures bearing on the tax rate are correlated at the assessors' office, where Executive Secretary Arthur F. Wells and a capable staff of assistants are immersed in figures and busy also handling taxpayers' inquiries.

Some of these inquiries come from veterans who are entitled to, or believe they are entitled to, tax exemptions, and in this connection Mr. Wells explains that any veteran who is 10 per cent disabled on Jan. 1, is entitled to a $2,000 exemption on a home he owns, under that year's taxation, providing his property is not assessed at more than $8,000. Claims for such exemption must be filed by Oct. 1 of the year in which the exemption is claimed.
